SUSTOURISMO local tourist packages entered in the testing phase

The SUSTOURISMO “touristic packages” are rewarding schemes adopted by the different project’s partners in order to support the promotion of the sustainable tourism and mobility at local level. Different schemes will be tested from August 2021 in the different cities and countries involved in the SUSTOURISMO project. Thanks to the collaboration schemes jointly defined by the tourism and mobility bodies of the different areas, the tourists will be able to enjoy these packages and awards by using the SUSTOURISMO app. The touristic packages and awards will play the role of strong incentives through which the tourists will contribute to the environmental sustainability and preservation of cultural heritage of the involved areas. The aim of these cooperation schemes is not only to jointly define the plans and actions of the project, but also to maintain the SUSTOURISMO interventions beyond the scope of the project. More details on the different SUSTOURISMO local tourist packages are provided in the next paragraphs.

Ljubljana. Sustainable circle around Ljubljana moors

There are only a few capitals that have such an extensive, special and accessible green area as the Ljubljana Marshes on their doorstep. This area is not only unique for its beautiful nature, but it also boasts of a very rich historical and archaeological heritage. The cycling tours are designed to allow the participant to experience all aspects of this amazing area protected as a landscape park.

Ljubljansko Marshes, located in the Ljubljana Basin, cover an area of 163 km². At the southern edge of the landscape park, the Ljubljanica River flows from several karst springs. The river has cut a few meters deep riverbed, and its descent is only about 1 m in the entire length of 20 km, so spring and autumn floods can cover up to half of the entire area of the Marshes. Floods are an annual phenomenon and one of the main characteristics of this part of Slovenia.

SUSTOURSIMO tourist packages in Ljubljana consists of two cycling tours. Cycling takes place on mostly flat terrain, and the route can be enriched by climbing one of the hills that surround the southern edge of the Marshes. There are countless paths through meadows, fields, and forests, the more we explore the marshes, the more we find them captivating.

By combining train ride from the city centre with cycling through the unique landscape and stopping to see numerous historical and natural points of interest along the way, the tourist obtains a memorable experience, while being sustainable at the same time.
